

INDIVIDUAL PROJECT JOINT VENTURE

The standard form of "Individual Project Statement of Joint Venture" must be executed and filed by those contractors who have formed an association for the specific purpose of submitting a joint bid on a single project let for bids by the Department of Transportation.

Compliance with the following instructions is requested in order to avoid the possibility of having the joint venture bid declared irregular.

INSTRUCTIONS

The bids of individual project joint venturers will be accepted provided all members of the joint venture are currently prequalified and have first executed and filed with the Secretary of Transportation, subject to his approval, a standard form of "Individual Project Statement of Joint Venture", setting forth the name of the joint venture, the members of the joint venture, the title of the improvement and the names of those authorized to bind the joint venture.

Members of a joint venture shall execute the "Individual Project Statement of Joint Venture" in accordance with the following applicable procedures:

- INDIVIDUAL: Signature to the Joint Venture Agreement in the firm name under which he is doing business.
- CO-PARTNERSHIP: The signature under the firm name, of the member or members authorized to bind the co-partnership.
- CORPORATION: The signature of an authorized officer of the corporation with the corporate seal affixed.

Upon submission to the Secretary of Transportation of a satisfactory "Individual Project Statement of Joint Venture", a bidding proposal will be issued to the joint venture when warranted by suitable prequalification of all the members. The proposal form is not transferable and any alteration of the name entered thereon without prior permission from the Secretary of Transportation, will be sufficient cause for considering the proposal irregular and consequent rejection of the bid.

Special authority is required for a joint venture to use a bidding proposal issued to a prequalified contractor who later desires to enter into joint venture to bid on the project.

NOTE:

Additional blank copies of the "Individual Project Statement of Joint Venture", available at the office of the Construction Engineer and the offices of the District Administrators, will be forwarded upon request.
